Unequality in the Execution of the Laws.

The scavenger, though not among the most highly respected, nor in his calling very convincing evidence, that he possesses refined and elevated sentiments, or has any very high or praiseworthy aim in life, yet for all that he may be an honest man, and is useful to society. Without scarcely a single exception, he is a total stranger to those occupations and associations which develop, refine and put into active exercise the better qualities of the mind and heart. Being associated with and choosing to work in filthy and repulsive society, he himself becomes low and mean. A man's associations and occupations are not, therefore, criteria by which to estimate his character.

By these criteria the status of certain hickspites of Brigham Young are, to the observing mind, determined and fixed surely and certainly. These hickspites are known by the public as civil or peace officers of the city, but in fact are only duty scavengers, engaged in doing the filthy work of their master.

No end can be accomplished without a use of the proper measures. It does not require more than ordinary penetration to see that one of the ends to be obtained by the lastful and adulterous keeper of the walled up harrow is to rob of their money and oppress as much as possible the Gentiles who dare to intrude their presence into this land of the Latter-day Saints, owned exclusively by them, and in which none but they have any rights, even Uncle Sam himself. To accomplish this end, like all others, requires a use of the proper means. To rob and oppress regenerators, by force, like common highwaymen, would be outlawry, and could not be long continued with impunity. The hierarchy, however, being a sacred matter, and by no means a fool, well knows that the men of this nation, out of respect to legal forms, will long and patiently endure the violation of justice; that they will even submit to be robbed, if it be done under the semblance of law.

It therefore becomes a very necessary means, to accomplish these ends, that the covering of judicial proceedings be thrown over these things.

There must be a judge elected and judge must be a Jeffries, he must have a jury of butchers to find verdicts, and have hangmen to execute his writs.

These qualifications are centered in a certain judge, who, in the name of law, in this city, almost every day disgraces, by his administration, judicial proceeding. The care marks of this man are so plain that no one can fail to recognize them. Injustice to the memory of the dead, however, we are compelled to qualify the foregoing, which we do by stating, that this judge, or more properly scavenger, is not a Jeffries, because he is wholly deficient in all that Jeffries had to recommend him; without any of his erudition or legal knowledge, he emulates only those things which made that depraved man infamous.

Sad indeed is the fate of the unfortunate and friendless pilgrim who passes through his or the hands of his hangmen. Personal liberty, and the safeguards thrown around it, are no obstacle in his way. No age, no sex, afford protection against his injuries and injustice, if the unfortunate victim happens to be one of the proscribed class. Even the sacred precincts of the lone, unprotected widow's private bed-chamber does not shield her from the mortification and indignity of an unlawful, violent and scrutinizing midnight search by this man's hangmen and deck-hands.

The prisoner arraigned before his bar in open Court insulted and maligned, and long moral lectures delivered to him upon the opportunity of the crime of breaking the oppressive and unequal laws of the Saints, when at the same time he himself openly wallows in the cess-pool of adultery, against the laws of his Government, which he has sworn to uphold and support! No doubt he is one of the apostles of God. To violate an oath is not perjury in him. Hypocrisy is the climax of villainy, and this Judge excels in this art.

How long will this disgrace upon Justice and judicial proceedings continue? How long will the Gentiles be compelled to submit?

How long will the Government permit the laws, which should be uniform and executed alike against all, to be enforced against the regenerators in one way and against the Saints in another?

The Result in Oregon.

There appears to be no longer any doubt of the success of the entire Union ticket in Oregon. The Oregonian of June 11th says: "Yesterday we received a dispatch from Eugene, Oregon, stating that the Union ticket had won 40 Union majority. Lockhart, the Union candidate for the Assembly, is therefore doubtless elected. If so, it gives as a majority of one in the House. We already have six majority in the Senate, and therefore have control of both branches of the Legislature. On joint ballot we have a majority of 100 men, thus insuring the election of a true Union man to the United States Senate. There can no longer be a doubt that we have elected our Congressman, Secretary of State, State Treasurer and State Printer, and, according to the most reliable figures we can get, our candidate for Governor has a majority of about 100. There is a bare possibility, but we think there is no longer a probability, of Mr. Wood's defeat. Unless the counties east of the mountains give larger Democratic majorities than historic reports, our whole ticket is triumphantly elected."

SENATE.

Washington, June 19.—The Senate, after a protracted debate, passed, by a vote of 18 to 12, the following bill, amendatory of the act incorporating the Pacific Railroad: Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the Union Pacific Railroad Company, eastern division, be authorized to designate the general route of their road, and to file a map thereof, as now required by law, at any time before the first of December, 1886, and upon the filing of said map, showing the general route and the lands along the entire line thereof, so far as is shall be designated, that it shall be reserved from sale by order of the Secretary of the Interior, provided that said Company shall not be entitled to only the same amount of the bonds of the United States to aid in the construction of their road, and length of line, than would have been allowed them had they not been consolidated with the Union Pacific Railroad on the 100th degree of longitude, as now provided by law; and further, provided, that the said Company shall connect their line with the Union Pacific Railroad, but not at a point more than fifty miles west from the meridian of Denver, Colorado.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Union Pacific Railroad Company, with the consent and approval of the Secretary of the Interior, are hereby authorized to locate, construct and continue their road from Omaha westward, according to the best and most practicable route, and without reference to the initial point on the 100th meridian of west longitude, as now provided by law, in a continuous, completed line, until they shall meet and connect with the Central Pacific Railroad, of California; and the Central Pacific Railroad Company, with the consent and approval of the Secretary of the Interior, are hereby authorized to locate, construct and continue their road eastward, in a continuous and completed line, until they shall meet and connect with the Union Pacific Railroad; provided, that each of the above named Companies shall have the right, when, by the nature of the work to be done by reason of deep cuts and tunnel necessary to the expeditious construction of the Pacific Railroad, to work for an extent not to exceed three hundred miles in advance of their continuous, completed lines.

The above bill goes at once to the House, and will be presented for its early consideration.

The Senate also passed the Army Appropriation bill, adding thereto the House bill appropriating seven millions for the Freedmen's Bureau, as an amendment.

HOUSE.

Washington, June 19.—Garfield's bill, creating a university for education, which was rejected last week, came up to-day in the House on the reconstruction question, and was passed without debate. It provides for a commissioner of education, with four thousand dollars salary and four clerks. The duties of the department are simply to collect educational and other statistics. The bill goes to the Senate for concurrence.

Wilson, of Iowa, moved that the communication of the Secretary of the Treasury be referred to Committee on Banking and Currency, with instructions to inquire fully into all the circumstances. Rogers presented the minority report of the Reconstruction Committee, which is as follows: "In their judgment, so far from being a profligate abstraction it is a vital question. If that connection was not disturbed by such States when they entered into the rebellion, in violation of the constitution, which act was enough to justify the denial of such rights under the constitution."

The House debated the army bill and passed it. The debate being limited to five minutes, Schenck explained that the bill proposes an army of 43,000 men, capable of expansion to 70,000; he also stated there would be 50 infantry regiments, of ten companies each. The bill provides further that there shall be one general, one lieutenant general, five major generals and ten brigadier generals.

The Speaker submitted a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to the resolution of inquiry, stating that between February 23 and 23 he had sold, through the Assistant Treasury which had employed Mr. Meyer, $1,400,000 at a premium of from 41 1/2 to 37 cents, closing at latter price. The Secretary paid to Meyer one-third per cent on the entire amount, except the last two items. Since January 11th the Secretary has purchased 155,000 of 10-40s, for which he paid 1,414,262; he sold between January 23 and May 31 22,769,500 of 5-20s for which he received $2,445,240; 7-30s. Jay Cooke & Co. were employed in the last operation, which resulted in a profit to the Government of about $100,000, besides bringing up to above par the 7-30s, so increasing the value of the other securities as to prepare the way for a general funding of the national securities.

GENERAL NEWS.

Chicago, June 20.—Ward's rolling mill was burned last night. Loss two hundred thousand.

Des Moines, June 19.—The Republican Congressional Convention, on the seventh ballot, nominated Maj. Gen. Dodge, amidst immense excitement.

Chicago, June 20.—A Washington letter says: Owing to the representations of J. Ross Brown, agent of the California fruit growers, the Senate has decided to take off the tax of five cents per gallon on native wines, and to impose a tax of fifty cents per gallon on foreign "wines of inferior grade." Gen. Ortega, who claims to be the constitutional President of Mexico, has an agent at New York through whom he has submitted a proposition to Mr. Banks, chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations, looking for an alliance with the United States.

New York, June 20.—The steamer Arizona arrived with San Francisco dates of the 20th day of May.

An equestrian rider to General Scott is talked of in New York. Fifty thousand Americans are said to be traveling in Europe.

Jeff Davis' health is improving. The Brussels Journal states that Kautsky is acting in concert with the Italian Government, and endeavoring to excite a revolution in Hungary.

The New York law against dead-ends is a dead letter. The editors ride free, as their publication of advertisements constitutes them "employees of the railroad."

FROM THE RIVER.—The steamers Dora and Jennie Brown passed Atchison on their way down from Ft. Benton, on the 11th. The river was rising on the 12th. The Mollie Dozier was fired into by Indians, near Ft. Union, but no one was hurt. The Humboldt Union says the three persons hung by the vigilance committee, on Verdigris, referred to last week were Wm. Jones, Marcus Long and John House.

The clerk of the Jennie Brown gives the following memoranda of her trip from Fort Union: May 25.—Left Fort Union about 3 p. m. St. John's a short distance in advance; met the Goldfuch about fifty miles below; river rising rapidly, mostly from the Yellowstone.

May 29.—Met the Miner about 150 miles above Berthold, and the Luella 250 miles above Berthold. May 30.—Weather fine; met the David Watts and Lily Martin about 100 miles above Fort Rice; the Tom Stevens and Huntsville about 50; arrived at Fort Rice about 6 p. m., just in advance of the Dora, containing the long looked for relief; the bank was lined with soldiers, all feeling happy to know that soon they were to be homebound.

June 1.—Met the Sunset, Agnes and Mary McDonald in the forenoon; the Ned Tracy, Marion and Gallatin in the afternoon.

June 1.—Arrived at Sully about 6 a. m. found five boats at the landing, all having been seized by the government, viz: the St. Johns, Cera, Lexington, Rubicon and Montana; the Dora soon arrived, making the seventh boat being already in the Government employ, she was allowed to proceed; we were not detained by the military.

June 3.—Early this morning we met the Jennie Lewis and Ben. Johnson, at Crow Creek.

June 4.—Met the H. S. Turner, just below Fort Randall; weather rainy.

June 5.—Owing to a terrible wind, we only made about forty miles; met the Nellie Rogers at Brown's Landing, a few miles above Bon Homme, where both boats spent the night.

June 8.—Met the Antelope near De Soto, the Pocahontas a few miles below, the Jacob Sass at Cincinnati Landing, and the Denver at Florence; arrived at Omaha at 2 p. m., one hour in advance of the Rosewall.

June 9.—Met the Colorado above Nebraska City, and the J. H. Long at Brownsville.

June 10.—Met the Yellowstone at Lyons; arrived safely at Leavenworth about 8 a. m.

From Fort Laramie.

Fort Laramie, D. T., June 8.—We are having interesting times just now. Under the successful administration of Col. M. E. Bradley, 5th U. S. Vol., commander of the District of the Plains, the country is being reclaimed. The Government has appointed agents to treat with them for peace.

The commission is composed of Col. E. B. Taylor, Col. H. E. Maynard, Col. McLaren and Mr. Wistar, who met the Indians in council for the first time on 6th inst. Owing to some misunderstanding, all of the chiefs were not present, but they will be here in the course of four or five days, when it is expected a permanent peace will be secured, and travel on the plains will be no longer a bugbear of danger to freighters and travelers.

Red Cloud, Spotted Tail, The Man Afraid of Horses, Standing E. K. Red Leaf, and quite a number of the principal men of the Sioux nation were present.

URG & KAMM

The Daily Union
Local and Miscellaneous.

TRAVELING—The Union is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its circulation is every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho. (To which it gives the telegraphic dispatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers.) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four general Territories.

We never display advertisements in double columns. With our patrons abroad please remember the fact of the above. It will save them and its considerable annoyance and correspondence.

BIRTH—In this city, June 27, the wife of E. W. Milford of a daughter.

I MORRIS is paying the highest market price for soldiers' bounty papers.

THE Western stage, that left yesterday, had on 4,900 pounds of through mail matter.

CAPTAIN E. B. Grimes, A. Q. M. at Camp Douglas, invites proposals for hay and wood at Fort Bridger.

READ the new advertisement of Thos. Curry's Tailoring establishment. Satisfaction is guaranteed to all customers.

Major General Q. A. Gilmore is expected to visit Austin, Nevada, within a few weeks. He has heavy mining interests in that region.

JUDGE Lawrence, special Post Office Agent, expects to start for Pahrangat to-day, on business connected with his department.

MOVEMENT OF TRAINS—Passed Ft. Kearney, June 13th, conductor J. H. Nesbitt; 27 ox wagons, 38 men, 34 revolvers, 20 guns; bound for Virginia City, Montana.

By our dispatches it will be seen that Major General G. M. Dodge has been nominated for Congressman from Iowa. No better selection could have been made.

THE CARMICHAEL TESTIMONIAL—Through the kindness of Mr. Stein, Treasurer of this praiseworthy enterprise, we have been permitted to examine advance sheets of the selection of Miss Carmichael's Poems, now being published in San Francisco. The modest little volume is gotten up in a style of rare typographical beauty, and cannot fail to win popular notice and admiration, both on account of its outward appearance and internal worth. The publishers have notified the parties with whom they are in communication in this city that the books will be ready and sent from San Francisco on Wednesday next, July 4th.

THE VEDETTE establishment is under almost infinite obligations to Frank F. Fox, the enterprising and gentlemanly proprietor of the Excelsior Gardens, for a huge basket of the most delicious strawberries, accompanied with plenty of cream, sugar and all the usual accessories, which was sent around yesterday afternoon, and quickly dispatched amid a profusion of thanks to the whole-souled donor.

Fox's Gardens are all the rage at the present time, and we know of no better way of spending an hour these sultry afternoons and moonlight evenings than by paying them a visit and indulging in a plate of ice cream or strawberries.

ATTENTION, CALIFORNIANS!
I will pay the HIGHEST PRICE for CALIFORNIA BOUNTIES. Secure a fair return for your Bounty Papers by giving me a call at my stand in the market. June 25-27

OFFICE ASSISTANT, QUARTERMASTER,
Camp Douglas, U. T., June 27, 1886.
SEALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received at this Office until 12 o'clock, M., on MONDAY, JULY 16, 1886, for the supply of the following articles at Fort Bridger, U. T.: Seven Hundred (700) Cords Wood. Two Hundred and Fifty (250) Tons Hay.

The articles to be supplied must be of the best quality. The wood must be cut in lengths of eight (8) feet, split, and properly corded in such part of the Fort grounds as may be selected by the A. Q. M. No small limbs or decayed wood will be received.

The Hay must be well cured and made from the best quality of native grasses. It will be subject to inspection and weight, and must be delivered and stacked by the Contractor on the grounds at Fort Bridger.

The stock must be of the following dimensions: Twenty-two (22) feet wide at base; thirty (30) feet wide at bulge; 12 feet from base; twenty-five (25) feet high, and of sufficient length to contain the 250 Tons. The contractor must also furnish Salt at the rate of twenty (20) pounds to the ton of Hay. The stock must be properly built, and carefully raked off to protect it from the weather. The drainage poles must be at least six inches thick and so arranged as to prevent the Hay coming in contact with the ground and to afford free circulation of air under the stock.

The parties, to whom the contract may be awarded, will be required, within forty-eight (48) hours after the acceptance of the bids, to give bonds, equal to fifty (50) per cent. of the amount of the contract, for the faithful performance of the contract.

Each Proposal must be accompanied with a statement signed by the person offered by the bidder as his country, stating their willingness to enter into bonds to meet the contract should be awarded to said bidder.

In the case of "Firm" making bids, each individual name must be written out.

A copy of this advertisement (a slip cut from this paper) must be attached to each copy of proposal.

Payment to be made in such funds as may be furnished by the U. S. Government. Proposals to be sent in to an envelope, and addressed to "Proposals for Wood and Hay at Fort Bridger," and directed to the undersigned.

The Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

No bids will be considered unless the party making it is present.

Public Sale days, Friday and Saturday, July 6th and 7th, 10 A. M., at Emigrant Central, Great Salt Lake City, Utah.

The stallion was sired by the celebrated English horse "Prince of England," imported by Sam. Merritt of Alameda county, California, in 1861, at a cost of eight thousand five hundred ($8,500), dollars, and is of thorough blood draft stock. The dam was of full blood, Kentucky Whiststock, owned by the same man, making the best cross breed for this Territory to be found, having both speed and draft combined. The horse will be 3 years old next October; he is 17 hands high, blood bay color, black mane and tail, weighs 1200 pounds. He can be seen at the Bureka Stable, 2d East Temple street, until the day of public sale.

Flour to be of the best brand, put up in 98 lb. sack, ready for market; taken at the rate of $6.25 per sack.

Wheat to be of good quality, for which I will allow $2 1/2% per bushel.

This is the best opportunity ever offered to farmers and stock raisers in this Territory, to purchase fine stock at low rates, being the best band of stock ever driven into this Territory from California, none of which is less than one-half American blood, most of them 3/4 and 1/2 American; all of which must and will be sold at private and public sale.
